

Connie is a Type A personality, (not just) self-proclaimed control freak and coffee addict. These characteristics have served her well in her career, whether it be as owner/CEO of a trucking outfit, or her most recent role as CEO of Wise Choices Pregnancy Resource Center.

Connie leads PassionLife Essentials and speaks and teaches with a passion to inspire “more” in others—more of Jesus, more healing, more confidence, more passion. Whatever she does, it will be sincere, from the heart, and without fluff.

She is in love with Jesus, her husband, her kids, and her coffee. Life has not been anywhere close to perfect, but it is good, and the Lord has called her to live out her testimony transparently as she speaks and writes about his goodness.
